Long term EVS: THEATER AND MEDIA EDUCATION

Application deadline: 24/09/2017

Application procedure: send CV and motivation letter to info@malomszinhaz.hu

Selection procedure: skype interview

Dates of project: 01/02/2018 - 31/01/2019

Where: Jászberény, Hungary

Who: Three enthusiastic volunteers between 18-30, who are eager to implement their creativity on their own.

Coordinating and hosting organization: Foundation for New Theatre, Jászberény (Hungary)

THE ORGANIZATION

The Új Színházért Alapítvány (Foundation for New Theater) manages the Malom Film-Theater (www.malomszinhaz.hu), established in 2009. It is a host theater which invites national and international theater groups to perform with an average number of 8-9 performances per month. The organization owns a building in the heart of the town, which includes a room for the performances: stage and audience section with the capacity of 90 seats, appropriate light and sound system. There is a separate training room and a community room.

Besides the hosting activity, our organization has always put emphasis on theatre education. Since 2013 we provide drama and non-formal education for the youngsters of the area. The workshops are led in English by our international volunteers.

APPLICABLE PLACEMENTS

1. Drama and/or Non-Formal Education tutor (number of volunteers needed: 2)
2. Media and documentation maker and tutor (number of volunteers needed: 1)

DRAMA AND/OR NON-FORMAL EDUCATION TUTOR

In 2013 drama and non-formal education courses started with weekly frequency throughout the whole school-year. Year by year we keep on developing our classes with the help of the volunteers. At the moment (2017), there are 6 groups with an approximate number of 80 participants. Children and teenagers are around 5-18 years old. Groups are arranged according to age.

Volunteers' Role:

The role of the volunteers is to come up with and implement drama and non-formal educational workshops for the groups in the theatre and in the different schools. The structure of these workshops is totally up to the volunteers. Our staff can provide all the help and mentorship for the classes, and of course, we will support you and give you advice when you prepare your workshops.

The volunteers can work together with her/his partner, or do their workshops on their own. The ideal volunteer has at least some experiences in drama and non-formal or art-education, is able to fluently communicate in English, has a positive attitude and is enthusiastic about any kind of art.

Number of volunteers needed: 2

MEDIA AND DOCUMENTATION MAKER AND TUTOR

The role for the media and documentation volunteer is to provide media tools, such as photos, videos for the theatre about the workshops and performances or other happenings around the theatre's life. Besides the documentation, a weekly workshop will be also among the duties of the chosen volunteer. The workshop will be in English. We can provide basic tools (camera, computer, etc.) although the volunteer can do workshops using only mobile phones, tablets or other daily used technical equipments. Collaboration with the other volunteers is also expected. There are many possibilities to connect drama, theatre and media. The volunteers can arrange to make short videos or other things with the participation of the youngsters. The ideal volunteer needs to be creative, experienced in photo/video, have good communicational skills, be able to give instructions to the participants from the preparation until the final cuts. Having their own equipment is an advantage, but it isn't a must.

PERSONAL PROJECT

The purpose of a personal project is to offer space for development of volunteer oriented to realizing individual learning goals. Furthermore, if any volunteer has interest in doing their own project (a performance, show, workshop) in their free time, our staff can give them all the necessary instruments and help. The theatre building is available for the volunteers 7/24 as well.

We also expect that personal projects will bring a new dimension to implemented activities and promote cross-cultural learning and exchange between volunteers and beneficiaries who are in large culturally homogeneous group.

All methodologies used will promote active participation, learning by doing, non-formal and informal education.

HUNGARIAN LESSONS

The language of the programme is English, but we can provide Hungarian language training for our volunteers on request.

ACCOMMODATION

All the three volunteers will be accommodated in a four-roomed detached house, which is situated in a quiet neighbourhood. Besides the bedrooms there is a shared living room, kitchen, bathroom in the building. There is a sauna in a separate building and an oven in the garden that can also be used.

PROJECT PLACE: JÁSZBERÉNY

Jászberény is situated in the Észak-Alföld region, Jász-Nagykun-Szolnok county, and it lies in the centre of the Jászság region. The population of the town is about 27.000, and it lies 80 km away from Budapest, the capital of Hungary. Jászberény has a university, a zoo, library, different dance groups and some sport facilities as well.
